VETERAN MATRIMONIAL LITIGATOR MARGUERITE ROYER JOINS MOSES & SINGER

NEW YORK, May 11, 2009 – Moses & Singer LLP announced today that Marguerite E. Royer has become a member of the firm’s matrimonial and family law practice group. Ms. Royer has over two decades of experience in matrimonial litigation. She will co-chair the department with Arlene G. Dubin, author of Prenups for Lovers and a nationally-recognized authority on marital agreements. Ms. Royer was previously a partner with Mayerson Stutman Abramowitz Royer LLP.

Alan Kolod, the firm’s chairman, stated, “We’re excited to have Marguerite on board. Her skills, temperament and result-driven focus on matrimonial litigation fit in perfectly with the firm’s broader approach to private client practice.” Ms. Royer is a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, an organization of preeminent practitioners with a high level of knowledge, skill and integrity. She is listed in the family law section of the 2007 and 2008 editions of New York Super Lawyers® and has the distinction of being a Martindale AV® rated attorney.

“Marguerite’s extensive litigation background is a welcome complement to our existing department,” said Ms. Dubin, co-chair of the firm’s matrimonial practice. Ms. Royer has extensive knowledge of matters relating to spousal maintenance, child support and custody, and equitable distribution. “I look forward to the contribution I can make to the firm as co-chair of Moses & Singer’s matrimonial practice. The firm’s private client and business practice areas will provide an enormous benefit to my clients,” added Ms. Royer.
