

YOU'RE CORDIALLY INVITED TO...

MOSES & SINGER LLP

Empowering Children for Financial Stewardship

Thursday, October 9, 2014
5:30 - 7:00pm

The Chrysler Building
405 Lexington Avenue, 12th Floor
(between 42nd & 43rd Streets)

Baby boomers are expected to give away $30 trillion over the next thirty years, the largest transfer of wealth in U.S. history, according to a recent study by the consulting firm Accenture. For each family this means facing difficult questions

Join us for cocktails and a lively discussion about:

- How much financial wealth you should leave your loved ones
- Preparing your children to be prudent stewards of your financial and societal legacy
- What is the appropriate time to transfer assets to children and grandchildren

Welcoming Remarks: Carole M. Bass, Esq., Partner, Moses & Singer

Speaker: Emily D. Griset is a Vice President and Wealth Planner with Citi Trust where her responsibilities include providing guidance on estate, gift, and income tax planning and reviewing and evaluating business opportunities. Click here to view full bio

Please RSVP by Monday, October 6, 2014 to:
events@mosessinger.com