Moses & Singer LLP Contributes to Lexis Practice Advisor, a LexisNexis Product for Attorneys Handling Transactional Matters

NEW YORK, NY - January 31, 2013 – Moses & Singer LLP is pleased to announce the contribution of our firm to Lexis® Practice Advisor, an innovative practical guidance product from LexisNexis® Legal & Professional, a leading provider of content and technology solutions for the legal profession. Lexis Practice Advisor is a Web-based solution that offers easy access to practical guidance and “on point” legal content and analysis, enabling attorneys to handle transactional matters more confidently and efficiently.

Lexis Practice Advisor features original content written and enhanced by leading practitioners. Moses & Singer was invited to author the Corporate Counsel module of the product which launched in fall of 2012. This includes sections on legal ethics for in-house counsel.

Devika Kewalramani, partner and co-chair of Moses & Singer’s Legal Ethics & Law Firm Practice, authored the Corporate Counsel module topic: Ethics for In-House Counsel (2012) of Lexis Practice Advisor. Other Moses & Singer contributing authors include Michael Evan Avidon, partner and co-chair of Banking and Finance practice group, Arnold N. Bressler, partner and co-chair of the Legal Ethics & Law Firm Practice group, Jeffrey M. Davis, co-chair of the Hotel and Hospitality practice group, Howard R. Herman and Dean R. Swagert Jr., partners and co-chairs of the Corporate/M&A practice group, Stella Lellos, Wai Y. Chan and Andrew Oliver, partners in the Corporate/M&A practice and Richard E. Strauss, partner in the Real Estate practice group. They have also contributed to the Business & Commercial module of Lexis Practice Advisor.

According to LexisNexis, this new service has been well received by the legal profession. More information about Lexis Practice Advisor and Corporate Counsel module are available at: www.lexisnexis.com/practice-advisor.
